

HILLSBORO VILLAGE

Hillsboro Village is a standout choice for professionals working near West End or Downtown, as well as students looking for an easy commute to several major universities in the area. Located just down the road from Vanderbilt, Belmont, Lipscomb University, and others, Hillsboro Village is full of youthful energy and excitement, thanks to its large student population.

Sports fans will love Hillsboro Village for its close proximity to collegiate athletics, and the many themed sports bars make it a perfect spot to enjoy game day. But don't let the lively atmosphere fool you—the area also offers plenty of upscale dining and retail and provides convenient access to most parts of the greater Nashville area.
